Boston, November 26, 1881.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO.

Gentlemen:—For years I have been agreatsufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefitted by BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, all my troubles are at an end. Can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically another person.

Mrs. W. J. FLYNN, 30 Mayerick St., E. Boston.

BROWN'S IRON BIT-TERS acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache.

THE DOG QUESTION .- Now that the fish question has ceased to disturb the public mind, the great dog question comes to the front. The law levies a tax on "all persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or camine species," and on all persons "harboring one or more dogs on his or their premises." The tax for the present year, commencing the 1st of June is one dollar and twenty-five cents for males, and one dollar and seventy-five cents for females, The late "dog census" showed a population of 3119 of these animals and yet for the past year there were licensed only 38 females and 431 males—a total of 469, a rather poor showing for the dogs. For the present year there have been reported 24 females and 342 males. Persons fail to avail themselves of the advantages of a license for various reasons. Some say the dog is either too old or too young, or infirm, and therefore ought to be exempt. Some have a very little dog, just so high. Some think a dog ought not to be taxed until he arrives at the age of discretion and can vote. Some are only keeping a dog a few days for a friend who will call soon. Some say the dog stays on their premises and wont leave when ordered away and they feed the poor dog from motives of humanity. Some persons send their dogs away for the benefit of their health, to return after the dog cart has made its rounds, or until the hunting season arrives, but unless the license has been paid, the law is evaded and this no good citizen ought

The law says: "All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the don or canine species or having one or more dogs on his or their premises," shall pay a tax of one dollar and seventy-five cents for a female and one dollar and twenty-five cents for a male commencing June 1, and ending May 31 in order tour. May 31, in each year. The law exempts neither old nor young, the halt, the lame, the blind, the deaf, the rich and poor are all taxed alike and those familiar with the subject say if the law is fully complied with the additional revenue de-rived from this source will be very material.

A Boy's Ghastly Discovery .- At Pitt burg Tuesday a German carpenter named Peter Weinkauf, killed his wife by first striking her down with a baseball bat and then cutting her throat with an 18-inch butcher knife. After accomplishing his aim he cut his onw throat, nearly severing his head from the trunk, with the same weapon used to dispatch his wife. No one was present when the double crime was committed, but shortly afterward a fifteeen-year-old son of Weinkauf entered the house and found the couple lying dead on the floor in a great pool of blood. He hurried down stairs, locking the door, and at once notified the police authorities. Weinkauf was a man of considerable property and the woman was his second wife. By a former wife he had five children, the oldest being twenty-three years of age. The cause of the murder is attributed to the fact that his second wife some time ago induced him to sign adeed conveying her all of his property, part of which had been left him by his first wife in trust for the children. The couple had lived unhappily for some time and on Monday it is said Mrs. Weinkauf had stated that she intended getting a divorce.

COMMUNICATED. I regret to notice a disposition upon the part of prominent conservative newspapers to run John E. Massey as democratic Congressman-at-large. The experiment will be a disastrous failure like that of advocating Greeley for President. This is a conservative county and has always done its duty faithfully, but I know that there are very many true men here who would regard the nomination of Massey as an insult and an outrage, and who would resent it as such. Massey, Mahone and Riddleberger stink in our nostrils with a stench which the fires of "infurnum" itself cannot purify. "Igne natura renovatur integra" may be applied with some show of truth to Benedict Arnold. but never to either of the infomous trio DISSOLVED SOUTH CAROLINA BONE, for sale above named, and the writer (although a plain and uninfluencial man, and partially disfranchised at that, but expresses the views of many others with whom he has conversed when he says that he will allow his right hand to resolve itself into primitive dust before he will deposit a ballot for one who has stolen "the livary of heaven in which to serve the Devil" or for Mahone (the Devil's henchman to do his vilest work,) or his superintendent and subaltern H.
